Membership Dues:

How much are dues?

- It's easy to become a member of BACT! All you have to do is submit $10 for an individual membership or $25 family membership (families of three or more).

Who pays dues?

- Anyone who wants to be an active member of BACT must pay their dues for the season. Please note that anyone cast in a BACT show will be required to become a member and pay dues.

When are dues due?

- Dues cover one year of membership, with the Membership Year starting at the Annual Meeting that takes place every June. You may pay your dues and become a member any time during the year, but you will be required to pay dues to renew your membership by the next June Annual Meeting.

What are dues for?

- Dues are a member's contribution to BAct as an organization and to the current season's productions.
- Dues cover one year of membership in Bryn Athyn Community Theater.

What are the benefits of being a BAct member?

- Members (age 18 and older) are eligible to vote in elections at BAct General Membership Meetings. We usually have about three membership meetings per year: an Annual Meeting in June and two other meetings in August/September and in February/March. Members of any age are welcome to attend meetings, but only those 18 or older can vote or run for a position on the Board of Governors.
- Members also are eligible for exclusive ticket discounts, which are announced in the weeks leading up to a show opening.

How can I pay dues?

- Pay using PayPal by clicking on the "Donate" button at BAct.org.
- Pay in person! Bring your $10 (individual) or $25 (family) dues to the Annual Meeting or any other membership meeting and pay directly to the Treasurer. We always have a table set up for collecting dues.
- If you are paying dues because you've been cast in a show, you may submit your dues to your show's BAct Board Liaison when he or she attends your rehearsals.
- Pay by snail mail! You can mail your check (made payable to Bryn Athyn Community Theater—please do not mail cash) to Bryn Athyn Community Theater, PO Box 142, Bryn Athyn, PA 19009.
- No matter how you pay, please include the top portion of this application form with your payment, so we are sure to have your updated information and can keep accurate records of dues.
